

(1,2) Historic entrance of the former industrial complex, view from Via Fricchieri (1) and from the internal courtyard (2).
(3,4) Adjacent to the entrance, on the right, the former office building built in 1920.

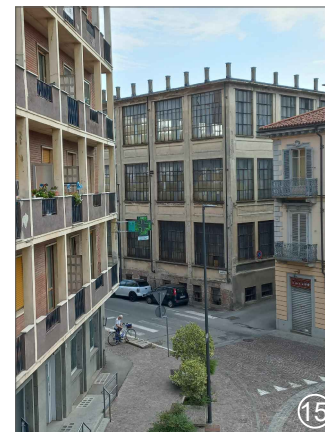

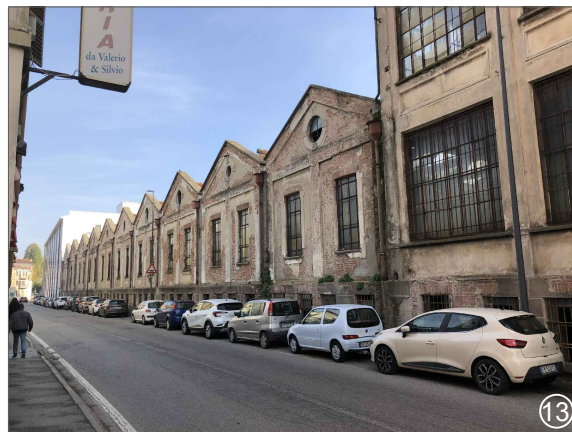

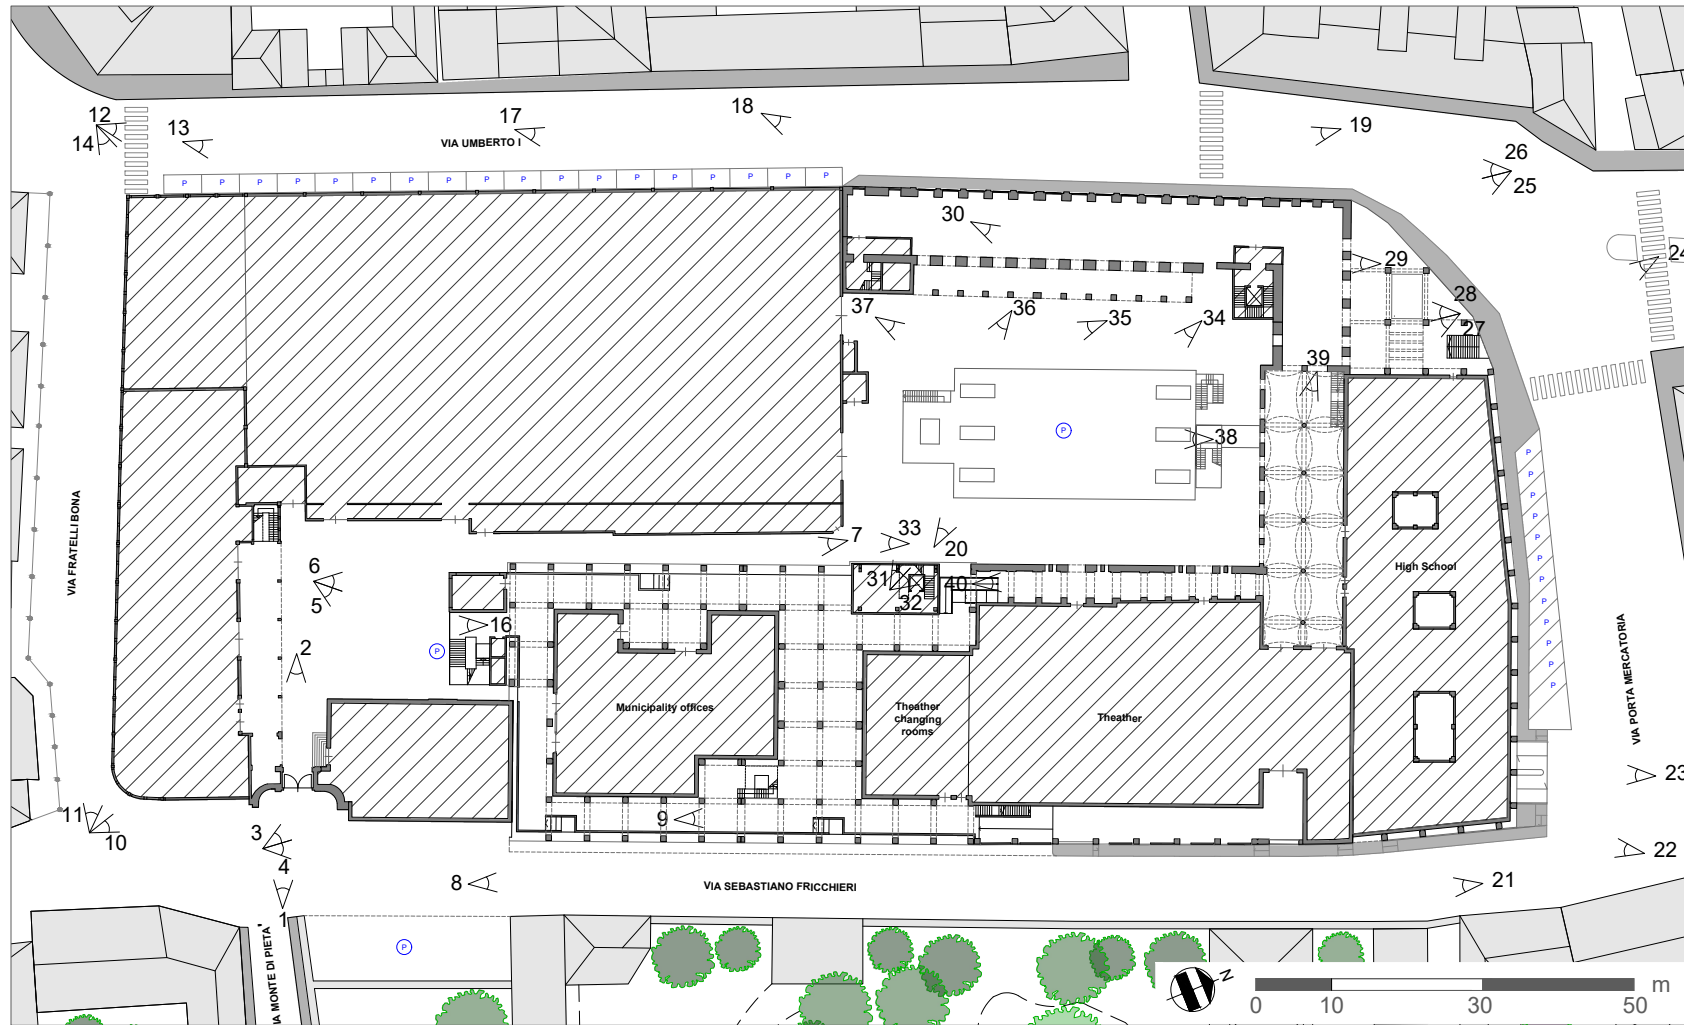

(5,6,7) View from the internal courtyard of the first intervention of the Sartori's project, the Municipality / museum / library building.

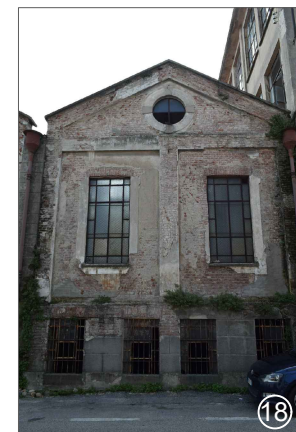

(8,9) The side of the building facing Via Fricchieri and the view from the porches.

(10, 11, 12) The 1926 building extending longitudinally along Via F.lli Bona. In the smaller sides it faces also Via Fricchieri (10) and Via Umberto I (12)

(13, 14, 15) The side of the building facing Via Umberto I and next to it the shed building once used as weaving room.
(16) View of the building from the internal courtyard.

(17,18) Next to the shed building, there's the latest expansion of the "Norberto Bobbio" Hotel management School.
(19, 20) View of the building along Via Umberto I and from the internal courtyard.